Mexico Sightseeing

Cabo San Lucas

The town of Cabo San Lucas is situated at the southern tip of the Baja California peninsula, approximately 20 miles west of San José del Cabo. This once sleepy fishing village has been transformed into a full-scale tourism destination. Championship golf courses, world-class deep-sea fishing and interesting nearby scuba diving opportunities abound in this resort. Restaurants serving delicious meals and shops with merchandise from all parts of Mexico are found throughout Cabo San Lucas for a complete destination vacation.

Cabo sightseeing cruise

The Rissalena (a newly commissioned, custom designed, 37 foot power catamaran with all the amenities to make your cruise a delightful experience) offers your friends, associates and family up to 20 people, a one-of-a-kind cruise experience. Reserve a sightseeing adventure to introduce you to the "day at lands end". Cruise into a vantage point of the encompassing magnificence of the rock cliffs hugging the brilliant waters of the bay. Get a "birds-eye-view" of the million dollar homes built at bay's edge, the seemingly inaccessible natural coves and beaches. You can relax with the personalized attention from the experienced English and Spanish speaking crew.

Biking around Cabo

There's nothing like cruising around Cabo on a bike! Heading up the west coast towards Todos Santos is like riding in a dream, and the road north to Buena Vista has some great views.

Cabo diving and snorkeling

The waters off of Cabo San Lucas usually offer excellent diving! Snorkelers and Scuba divers will both find what they're looking for here, and then some! Sea life is plentiful, and there is usually very little 'surge' on the Sea of Cortez side of Cabo. Out around the Arch the swells can cause some rougher waters near the surface, but the diving is usually calm at the sand and rock bottom at 30 feet.

Cabo San Lucas shopping

Downtown Cabo San Lucas offers the most diverse shopping on the Cape! Almost any item you need can be found while walking the streets of Cabo San Lucas. And, unlike shopping in some of the indoor malls in Cabo, shopping the various downtown streets allows you to enjoy the exceptional weather that Cabo usually offers!
